In fact it is probably a little more stressful than most other people's lives. But I can honestly say it's a wonderful life! I've written this blog to inspire and to encourage others, not to complain about my real life. No matter how difficult things get, no matter how rough things get, you'll always have a story to tell your kids about how you survived a very difficult time. And you'll tell them that you did so because you knew what life was all about. There is a lot more to this than you ever imagined, and I'm sharing it with you...
